

BLACK QUEER

TOWN HALL

In STEM and Healthcare

DAY 1, HEALTHCARE: THURSDAY APRIL 28TH, 2022 12PM-3:30PM EST

12:00 PM-12:05 PM EST Opening Remarks:
Peppermint, Black Queer Town Hall Co-Founder

Panels:

12:05 PM-1:30 PM EST Panel 1: "Black Queer Health and Healthcare"

Moderator: Nkemji Nweke, MA (she/her): medical student and bioethicist, St. George's University

Panelists:

Jonathan Mathias Lassiter, PhD (he/him) Assistant Professor of Psychology at Rutgers University; Black LGBT Health author specializing in clinical health psychology, couples relationship health, Afrocentric psychology, spirituality, and social justice

Oni Blackstock, MD, MHS (she/her) Primary Care and HIV Physician Founder and Executive Director of Health Justice

Skyler Jackson, PhD (he/him) Associate Research Scientist in LGBTQ Health at Yale School of Public Health

Elle Lett, PhD, MA, MBIostat (she/her) Postdoctoral Fellow at Boston Children's Hospital Computational Health Informatics Program (CHIP) and MD Candidate at Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania

1:35 PM-2:50 PM EST Panel 2: "Combatting the Misinformation and Pseudoscience of the Anti-Transgender Movement"

Moderator: Elle Lett, PhD, MA, MBIostat (she/her): Postdoctoral Fellow at Boston Children's Hospital Computational Health Informatics Program (CHIP)

Panelists:

Christi Butler, MD (she/her) Assistant Professor University of California - San Francisco Gender Affirming Urologic Surgeon

Farah-Amoy Fullerton, MD (they/them) University of Georgia - Amherst Pediatric Resident

Marcel Williams, MD (he/him) Family Medicine Resident; National Black Trans Advocacy Coalition

Rob Garofalo, MD, MPH (he/him) Professor of Pediatrics and Preventative Medicine Northwestern University

Keynote Speaker:

2:55 PM EST- 3:10 PM EST Keynote Address: "Introduction to the LITE Plus Study"

Tonia Poteat, PhD, MPH, PA-C (she/her) Associate Professor of Social Medicine, Center for Health Equity Research, University of North Carolina Chapel Hill

